“Tour the World” with Milton Concert Band

Milton, Ont. – Milton Concert Band’s spring concert will take the audience on a musical tour of the world. The concert takes place at St. Paul’s United Church, 123 Main Street East in Milton, Ontario on Saturday, April 4, 2009, at 8pm.

Drawing on the musical traditions of both its members and its audience, Milton Concert Band has put together a musical “World Tour” for its April 4, 2009 Spring Concert. The band will feature pieces which truly bring out the flavours of traditional folk and classical music.

“Each culture has its own unique musical traditions which are both iconic and familiar. It doesn’t take more than a few bars of a traditional Irish jig or a piece like “Brazil” for the listener’s feet to start tapping and their imagination to take flight.” says Musical Director, Joseph Resendes. “We’ve chosen such a variety of pieces that our audience will feel like it’s travelled the world in one night.”

“We really enjoyed putting this program together and we’re thrilled to be able to invite our audience to take this journey with us. The program features stops in Italy, Portugal and Latin America along with more familiar tunes with Celtic and Canadian origins.” says Band President Angela Rozario. “As if that wasn’t enough, we’ll be joined by a local dance group for very special performance that will add even more spice to the program.”

The band has partnered with Patricia Finnegan of Finnegan School of Irish Dance. She will be bringing a select group of dancers to perform for the audience. Finnegan’s dancers compete regularly and the band is thrilled to have such a high energy ensemble join us for the evening.
